Walt Disney's Donald Duck Quacks Up

Donald's quacky nephews, Huey, Dewey and Louie, foul up at home and on vacation in six of the best Donald Duck cartoons. It's nonstop hilarity as the feathery family goes camping and celebrates Donald's birthday. (.46) Oct. 7, 16, 19, 28

The Notorious Jumping Frog of Calaveras County

American humorist Mark Twain's classic story, a broad and cynical look at human nature, is turned into joyful animation. Newspaper cartoons and period tintypes from Victorian days helped the animators create a colorful 19th-century atmosphere. (.25) Oct. 6, 9, 14, 22, 26

INSIDE THE NFL

It's the most complete wrap-up of pro football around. Each week Len Dawson and Nick Buoniconti analyze action highlights of all the big games, the big plays and the upsets. Join them for interviews, predictions and an expert look at the action. Oct. 1, 2: 8, 9, 11; 15, 16, 18; 22, 23, 25; 29, 30

SPORTS SERIES

The Army was never like this—and there was never a raw recruit like Judy Benjamin! In a laugh-a-minute spoof of life, love and very adult relationships, Goldie Hawn virtually destroys basic training with a splendid Oscar-nominated performance. Eileen Brennan (also an Oscar nominee) lends strong support in a tale about a woman coming into her own. Adult situations, humor, profanity, brief nudity. (R-1:50) Oct. 4, 8, 12, 16, 20, 24, 28

Milton Berle's Magic of the Stars

Standing Room Only. A glittering array of Hollywood comedy stars dazzle you with feats of magic. Host Milton Berle clowns with the all-star line-up as they perform their bits of comedy and illusion. The mirth-magicians are: Lucille Ball, Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau plus surprise guests. Laugh with amazement as the masters of merriment make their own kind of magic. (.54) Oct. 3, 11

Brubaker Robert Redford

In this tense, hard-hitting drama, Robert Redford plays an unusual prison warden who sets out to reform a corrupt Southern prison farm and finds himself bucking the entire system. Jane Alexander, as a governor's aide, Yaphet Kotto and Murray Hamilton co-star in this film based on an actual case. Adult situations, profanity, graphic violence, nudity. (R-2:11) October 1, 5, 9, 13, 17, 21

Seems Like Old Times

Chevy Chase Goldie Hawn

Hit comedy writer Neil Simon turns to crime—with comically arresting results. Chevy Chase, Goldie Hawn and Charles Grodin make up a screwball triangle as Chevy is forced to rob a bank, ex-wife Goldie is expected to hide him and new husband Grodin doesn't know a thing. Adult language, humor. (PG-142) October 2, 4, 10

Where The Buffalo Roam

The wacky and offbeat life of '60s underground journalist Hunter S. Thompson is the starting point for a comedy barrage. Bill Murray (Stripes) and Peter Boyle co-star. Adult situations and humor, profanity. (R-136) Oct. 1, 5

The Pilot

Cliff Robertson plays a crack airline pilot faced with the challenge of his life when a drinking problem gets out of hand. At stake are his marriage, his job and 200 passengers. Adult language. (PG-134) October 3, 8, 10

GO TEAM, GO!
The Story of Sports in America

Host Dick Cavett examines sports-crazed America—from Babe Ruth to Bjorn Borg, from the 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings to the 1969 New York Mets. Other highlights: Alexander Cartwright (father of baseball); football's Knute Rockne; boxer "Gentleman Jim" Corbett; women in sports; great triumphs and great goofs. Oct. 5, 9, 11, 13, 17, 21, 25, 29

Bette Midler is Divine Madness

Outrageously funny and very risqué, "the Divine Miss M" struts her stuff—the songs, the jokes, the characters that made her famous. Backed by her trio, the Harlettes, this one-woman dynamo is at center stage in a frequently bawdy concert performance. Versatile Bette covers the musical spectrum from rockers and weepers to ballads, plus the title song from The Rose. Adult humor, profanity, vulgarity. (R-1:34) October 10, 18, 22, 26, 30

Mogambo Clark Gable Grace Kelly Ava Gardner

The steamy African jungle strips a man and two women of all but primitive instincts in this classic 1953 adventure. Clark Gable stars as the bronzed hunter whose life is complicated by playgirl Ava Gardner and English beauty Grace Kelly. Kelly and Gardner both earned Oscar nominations. Adult situations. (1:56) Oct. 12, 15, 18, 23, 31

Autumn Sonata Liv Ullmann Ingrid Bergman

A penetrating drama about the deep emotional chasms separating a mother and daughter starring two of the world's finest actresses. Oscar nominee Ingrid Bergman and Liv Ullmann are brilliant in director Ingmar Bergman's powerful study of love and hate. Adult situations and language. (PG-1:33) Oct. 14, 17, 25, 28, 31

Dummies:

SPORTS SPECIAL

World Series Scouting Report

As vital as statistics are to baseball fans, they are often not enough. That's why this 60-minute special on the October classic bats 1,000. You'll learn the strengths, weaknesses and idiosyncrasies of both World Series teams—from benches to bull pens, from hitters to fielders, from starting pitchers to specialists. If you really want to find out more than the statistics, watch Tim McCarver, Barry Tompkins and their expert guests. Plus highlights of the greatest moments from past World Series. October 19, 20

THE PARALLAX VIEW

Warren Beatty Paula Prentiss

Investigating a series of mysterious deaths, a reporter finds himself trapped in a maze of conspiracy, assassination and intrigue. Warren Beatty is a gutsy newsman in this startling melodrama with breathtaking suspense and some frightening political overtones. Paula Prentiss co-stars as a TV commentator. Adult situations, profanity, violence. (R-1:41) Oct. 24,27,30

Paul Simon In Concert

One of America's super talents in an exciting in-concert performance. This sensational show includes such old favorites as "The Boxer," "Still Crazy After All These Years," "Something So Right" and "Sound of Silence." Plus there's "Late in the Evening" and "One Trick Pony" from the movie sound track album. (-54) October 28

Bite the Bullet Gene Hackman Candice Bergen

Eight courageous riders (seven men and one woman) test their endurance in a rugged, turn-of-the-century race across the Southwest badlands. Candice Bergen and ex-Rough Riders James Coburn and Gene Hackman battle bullets, saddle sores and each other for the prize money. Adult language. (PG-2:11) Oct. 27,31

Consumer Reports
presents:

The Shop-Around Show

Is hot cereal more nutritious than cold cereal? Can you choose the best-tasting ice cream from just reading the label? Find the answers to these questions and many more. Other products: soaps and heating pads. Oct. 1,4,10

The Prize Fighter

In this knockout comedy, Tim Conway is a fighter with a perfect record: 20 fights, 20 knockouts, 20 losses. Trainer Don Knotts urges him along in the tough fight game of the Depression '30s. Profanity. (PG-1:39) October 2,11

Fade to Black

Dennis
Christopher

Eric Binford has seen so many movies he has begun to imitate them. In a film blending horror and macabre comedy, Dennis Christopher (Breaking Away) acts out his fantasies from Dracula, Night of the Living Dead and other screen greats. Linda Kerridge plays a startling Marilyn Monroe look-alike. Profanity, violence, nudity. (R-1:42) Oct. 30
